

Albertslund Centrum is an open-air local shopping centre located in the centre of the municipality of Albertslund approximately 17 kilometres West Copenhagen's city centre. The shopping centre is located next to the train station which provides the centre with steady footfall. The shopping centre is anchored by the grocery tenants Kvickly and Aldi. Citycon plans to further develop and expand the centre in the near future.

The shopping centre is a community centre that serves as the social hub of the Albertslund municipality providing, in addition to retail, municipal services, town hall, theatre, cinema and offices. The municipality of Albertslund is going to further develop the area within the next couple of years.

Albertslund Centrum attracts approximately 72,000 customers on weekdays, 15,000 on Saturdays and 13,000 on Sundays.

Anchor tenants: Kvickly, Imerco, Albertslund municipality
