

Kristiine is the second largest shopping centre in Tallinn. Kristiine was built in phases in 1999–2002, and an expansion of 12,000 square metres was completed in the autumn of 2010. The shopping centre was also refurbished in 2013. There are approximately 160 different stores in the shopping centre, with the main focus being on fashion.

Located on one of the main roads close to the city centre of Tallinn, Kristiine enjoys a wide catchment area and excellent transport connections. Kristiine attracts on weekdays approximately 20,000 customers and weekends 19,000 customers.

Anchor tenants: Prisma, H&M, NewYorker, JYSK
