

Stovner Senter is located in a densely populated area at the head of Groruddalen in Oslo. The centre is a town icon and hub for the local population, with its direct bus and metro connections. In 2016, the centre underwent a complete makeover and acquired a further 4,500 sq.m. of leasable area. With a brand new square and some 90 stores, Stovner Senter now offers a wide array of shops, eateries and services, and is therefore an ideal place to meet. The centre has approx. 1000 parking spaces and 22 electric car charging stations.

Stovner Senter is managed by Citycon for Partners Group.

Stovner Senter attracts approximately 16,000 customers on weekdays and 15,500 on Saturdays.

Anchor tenants: Meny, Vinmonopolet, H&M
